Call for Proposals

The Deadline for submitting abstracts is 15th of April 2021. The submission is done through the abstract form.

Make sure that you have already fulfilled the application form.

We invite you to submit your proposals for the upcoming Gestalt Congress in Sarajevo “LOVE AND THE PRESENT HUMAN CONDITION”, organized by the Psiho-Integrum d.o.o. Sarajevo and the EAPTİ-GPTIM NETWORK.

We are offering three types of active participation

Oral Presentation

- 20 minutes including a discussion
- Professional paper, scientific work (either qualitative or quantitative approach) or case overview (case description, treatment goals, course of the treatment, evaluation, conclusion)
- Required abstract content: title, goal, method, results, conclusions

Workshop

- 90 minutes
- Required abstract content: title, goal, learning outcomes, workshop content, course of the workshop, expectations from the participants, maximum number of participants

Poster Presentation

- Professional paper or scientific work (qualitative or quantitative approach)
- Required abstract content: title, goal, method, results, conclusions

The Deadline for submitting abstracts to the Scientific Committee is 15th April 2021 (oral presentations, workshops and poster presentations)

The Abstracts should be in line with following standards:

- the maximum title length is 15 words
- abstract should be up to 200 words
- the maximum of keywords is 5
- If submitting for workshop except the abstract, information about the maximum number of participants must be included

For all candidates:

- the biography of maximum 100 words is mandatory
- a properly filled out form for presenters is mandatory

Remarks:

- official languages of Congress are English and B/H/S (Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian)
- the author who will be presenting i.e., the presenter must be the first one mentioned
- abstracts will be printed out in the language they were submitted in
- the abstract will be included in the program only if the presenter pays a participation fee. You can apply solely via the congress web page until 15th April 2021.

Important note: The deadline for sending the full papers is 1st December 2021

We offer you the possibility to publish in the peer review journals
