

Call For Proposals

The Deadline for submitting abstracts is 1st of May 2023. The submission is done through the abstract form

Make sure that you have already fulfilled the application form

We invite you to submit your proposals for the upcoming 5th International Interdisciplinary Gestalt Congress in Malta “Moving edges of Psychotherapy – fields, and strategies of application,” organized by EAPTI GPTIM, Malta, and the EAPTI-GPTIM NETWORK.

We are offering three types of active participation:

Oral Presentation

- 20 minutes including a discussion
- Professional paper, scientific work (either qualitative or quantitative approach) or case overview (case description, treatment goals, course of the treatment, evaluation, conclusion)
- Required abstract content: title, goal, method, results, conclusions

Workshop

- 90 minutes
- Required abstract content: title, goal, learning outcomes, workshop content, course of the workshop, expectations from the participants, maximum number of participants

Poster

- Professional paper or scientific work (qualitative or quantitative approach)
- Required abstract content: title, goal, method, results, conclusions

The Deadline for submitting abstracts to the Scientific Committee is 1st May 2023 (for oral presentations, workshops, and poster presentations)

The Abstracts should be in line with the following standards:

- the maximum title length is 15 words
- abstract should be up to 200 words
- the maximum of keywords is 5
- The submission for the workshop beside the abstract must include the information about the maximum number of participants

For all candidates:

- the biography of a maximum of 100 words is mandatory
- a properly filled out form for presenters is mandatory

Remarks:

- official languages of Congress is English
- the author who will be presenting, i.e., the presenter must be the first one mentioned
- abstracts will be printed out in English
- the abstracts will not be included in the program of the Congress

Important note:

The Deadline for sending the entire paper is 21st September 2023. We offer you the possibility to publish in the EAPTI –GPTIM Network Journals.